San Diego’s Crown Nosa Solidifies His Rise with New Single Too Solid

Nosa Solidifies His Rise

Oakland, California, 30.01.2026, 03:47 Time

Nexxlegacy Press Reporting - Crown Nosa Single - Too Solid Single available on all platforms. Check it out now. Crown Nosa is a Nigerian-American R&B artist and rapper based in San Diego, California, representing both San Diego and the Inland Empire region. He’s affiliated with the label Eye2Eye Entertainment. His musical journey began when he was young, playing drums in his church, which eventually led him to writing music and performing publicly.

EL CAJON, CA – 1/29/26 – Eye2Eye Entertainment and Nexxlegacy Radio are proud to announce the latest movement from rising star Crown Nosa. Following the success of breakout tracks like "5 Starr" and "Hit Fo," Nosa returns with his most definitive work yet, "Too Solid," available now on all streaming platforms.

Produced under the visionary guidance of industry veteran Leon Omar Batiste (Bruh Bruh Omeezy), "Too Solid" is more than a track—it’s an anthem for the "Eye2Eye" movement. The single showcases Nosa’s signature high-energy delivery and lyrical precision, further cementing his place in the San Diego music scene.

"Crown Nosa represents the grind and the heart of our community," says Batiste. "With 'Too Solid,' we’re showing the world that the San Diego sound is here to stay."

The release comes at a pivotal moment for the Eye2Eye brand, as Batiste currently stars in the Tubi reality series The Wheel World, bringing international eyes to the talent brewing in Southern California. Fans can expect a series of high-octane YouTube Shorts and exclusive behind-the-scenes content documenting Nosa’s journey from the studio to the stage.

Stream "Too Solid" now on Apple Music and Spotify.
